

THE HONORABLE

MIKE GARCIA

CONGRESSMAN , CALIFORNIA'S 25TH DISTRICT

First generation American citizen Mike Garcia is a highly decorated United States Naval Officer whose record-setting flying performance earned him the honor of becoming one of the first Super Hornet strike fighter pilots in the Navy. He flew over 30 combat missions during Operation Iraqi freedom in the skies above Baghdad, Fallujah and Tikrit.

Garcia is a native of Santa Clarita since his move to Saugus in 1982 with his mom and step-dad (LAPD officer) at the age of 6. Since this young age Garcia yearned to serve his nation and had his sights set on becoming a Naval Aviator. "At the age of 6 I knew I wanted to fly fighter jets off of aircraft carriers in defense of my country, my decision to run for Congress is a continuation of that desire to serve and a sense of responsibility to serve my country and my district."

A top graduate of Saugus High School in 1994, Garcia was nominated by Representative Howard "Buck" McKeon to attend the US Naval Academy in Annapolis. Garcia graduated in the top 3% of his Annapolis class with a bachelor's degree (Major in Political Science with 60% of his syllabus comprised of engineering courses, and a minor in Spanish). In May of 1998 he was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Navy with orders to attend flight school in Pensacola, Florida.

As an F/A-18 pilot Garcia was deployed several times on the USS Nimitz, a nuclear powered aircraft carrier. He was lauded as one of the best leaders and one of the most naturally talented pilots in the Navy. He saw combat operations during the first 6 months of Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003 and participated in over 30 combat sorties in the skies above Baghdad, Fallujah and Tikrit. "My operational service in the Navy was the pinnacle of a career. While my family made great sacrifices the reward of serving our country and providing for its defense was well worth it," said Garcia, a first generation American whose father legally immigrated to the US in 1959.

Accruing over 1400 hours of operational flight time after nearly 20 years of military service to our country, Garcia decided to separate from the US Navy with an Honorable Discharge and focus on his family. While he continued as a reservist instructor pilot, Garcia moved back to the 25th District in 2009 and began to work for the Raytheon Company.

During his now 10 years as an executive at Raytheon, Garcia has been responsible for the generation of billions of dollars of revenue and the creation of hundreds of jobs for his company and our district. "The aerospace industry in the 25th District should be commended and supported by our local leadership. This industry brings high-end technology to the warfighter and high paying jobs to our community. There is nothing more noble than that!", exclaims Garcia.

Besides his service in the military and employment with a large aerospace firm, Garcia has a passion for real estate. "I have been successfully flipping houses, buying beat up properties and refurbishing them for families who can't afford to do it themselves, and providing quality rental properties to lower income families since 2004. Through the booms and recession, I had great success because of my hard work and diligence. I love the members of the real estate community in the 25th District because they understand that hard work leads to success, not hand outs and government subsidies."

Garcia's decision to run for Congress in 2020 as the Republican nominee should come as no surprise to members of the 25th District. He has seen the world but has returned to his hometown. He has a long track record of service, business growth and wanting to see his community remain the utopia it has been since its inception.

When asked why he is running for Congress in 2020 Garcia stated, "The bottom line is that I am not happy with the results of the last election. Katie Hill misrepresented herself and her platform. She did not represent our moderate District. I have the choice to stand on the side lines and see what happens but that is not in my DNA. This is an extension of my desire to serve, this time to fight for my district. We need to be aggressive this time. To that end I am seeking support to become the 25th District Congressional Representative in 2020. If not me, who? If not today, when?" Garcia is the husband to Rebecca Garcia, the owner of the Rebecca Rollins Interiors in Santa Clarita, and the father of Preston (age 13) and Jett (age 3).

7 REASONS TO JOIN VIA

WHY VIA?

VIA knows working professionals have many choices when selecting between the various business organizations in the Santa Clarita Valley. Each serves a distinct purpose and vital role in the overall health and vitality of the community. But when someone asks, “Why VIA?” The simple answer is “Why not VIA?”

With membership at the heart of the organization, creating value is an ongoing focus. Members receive special member rates for programs, training and events, and discounts on sponsorships at VIA-branded signature events. Perhaps more importantly, members can realize a competitive advantage in developing business within the area’s industrial centers.

Since 1981, VIA has collaborated with regional organizations to form strategic partnerships that expand its focus and networking capabilities. By strengthening areas of influence, VIA, at times, has reached beyond the valley’s borders to create greater value for members.

It makes good business sense to allocate limited marketing dollars where you get the most “bang for your buck.” Depending on the size of your business or organization, VIA membership can be about $1 per day.

To learn more about membership, contact Kathy Norris at (661) 294-8088 or visit www.VIA.org.

1. VISIBILITY VIA members who attend events and participate in business-related activities maintain visibility with business professionals in the community. The more others know about your business, the better informed they are on ways to support your company.
2. ACCESS TO COMMUNITY LEADERS AND ELECTED OFFICIALS Whether volunteering to serve on a committee or attending specific events where business and elected leaders are likely to be, you’ll find yourself in situations where you can identify and meet decision makers face-to-face.
3. ONGOING TRAINING, EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT VIA offers leadership training for members through its Leadership Academy and sales training through the Marketing and Sales Academy. VIA offers additional training and education periodically throughout the year on a variety of topics.
4. NETWORKING From seminars, monthly luncheons, the annual VIA BASH gala, membership referrals and various business committees, there are ample ways to meet new contacts, referrals and people who can help you with ideas and additional ways to increase the visibility and goals of your company.
5. LOW COST ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES Whether you have a large or small marketing budget, VIA offers a wide range of affordable advertising options and sponsorship packages to fit almost every budget.
6. ADVOCACY VIA researches, lobbies and routinely discusses with local and regional government units, politicians and the media issues that are relevant to the needs, goals, and challenges of the business community.
7. CREDIBILITY As a member of VIA, your business will be viewed as a reputable and professional organization that is connected to its business community.
